Shower Fetes Mrs. Walsh

The doorbell rang Tuesday evening and was Mrs. Harold Walsh surprised!

On the doorstep stood a group of friends laden with gifts for the expected new arrival in the Walsh home, 1722 Manuel Ave. Mrs. D. C. Cook planned the pink and blue event.

Together with gifts the friends brought a traditional stork shower cake, with the long-legged bird as the chief motif. The cake and coffee were served following games and present-time.

Participating in the surprise affair were Mesdames William Fulton, Burnell Wright, D. C. Cook, James Presley, Mavis Cook, John McCann, Jack Lewellyn, C. M. Moore, James Keenan, Archie Speed, George and the honoree.

Holiday at Catalina
Catalina Island was vacation spot this past week for Mr. and Mrs. Murray L. Rudnick, 1328 Acacia Ave. Accompanying them on the holiday were Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Howard. The travelers were expected to return this week-end.

SIGN PAINTER . . . Continental Carol Maloy, paint brush in hand, decorates YWCA hall window for the Continental-sponsored "Lollipop Hop" tomorrow night. Dance time is 8 p.m. to 12 midnight, to the music of the Melloaires. (Herald photo).

Lollipop Hop Is Tomorrow

YWCA will be a lollipop land tomorrow night when the Continentals Y-Teen group, hold their "Lollipop Hop" from 8 p.m. to 12 midnight.

Couples may buy tickets for 75 cents at the door, and walk through a white archway, along a picket fence bedecked with ice cream cones, lollipops and candles of all varieties, and into the dance hall.

Once inside they will dance to the music of the Melloaires, band composed mainly of Torrance High School students. Refreshments will be served during the evening.

Melloaires Go On TV Tonight

Melloaires, popular young band composed mainly of Torrance High School students and musicmakers for the Continental-sponsored "Lollipop Hop" tomorrow night, will appear tonight on KTTV, Channel 11, at 9:30 o'clock.

The program is a talent show.

Band members are Sidney Larson, director and bass player; Cindy Young, vocalist; Tad Dale, drums; Frank Sclarrotta, trumpet; Ross Sclarrotta, trombone; Ray Parrish, saxophone; and Mickey VanDeventer, pianist.

Soroptimists Plan August Activity Slate

Breakfast and brunch are in store for Harbor District Soroptimist Club the last week of August.

A breakfast will be served Sunday, Aug. 24, at the YWCA. Mrs. Cecyle Lusby, ways and means chairman, is in charge of the project.

Club members will meet for brunch Wednesday, Aug. 27, at the home of Mrs. Marion Young, president, 947 W. 21st St., San Pedro. This event is being held in lieu of the monthly dinner meeting regularly held on the last Wednesday of each month.

Social and dinner meeting was held Wednesday, July 30, at the home of Mrs. Elsa Morris, 3706 Weymouth Ave. Mrs. Morris was assisted with hostess duties by Mesdames Jeanne Farr and Irma Wilson.

Guests at the gathering were Mesdames Mary Regan and Marge Walker.

Woman's Club Sends Three to Roundtable

Mesdames Douglas Baldwin, president; B. T. Whitney, advisor; and C. Albert Smith, third vice-president of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club attended the first president's roundtable of the California Federation of Women's Clubs, Junior Membership, Monday night at the South Gate Woman's clubhouse.

At the dinner meeting each president was issued a manual containing her work sheets for the coming club year.

Mrs. Mary Serr, state junior president, was the honored guest.

New Mr. and Mrs. James Pura Honeymoon in Salinas, Calif.

Honeymooning this week in Salinas are the new Mr. and Mrs. James Pura, who were wed in the Torrance Catholic Church of the Nativity, July 6.

Wedding trip was delayed until this week, when the groom received his discharge from the Navy. He formerly served on the USS Calvert.

The bride, nee Geraldine Arias, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Salias Arias, 4100 Spencer St. An exquisite ballerina gown of white tulle and lace complemented her dark beauty as she was joined in marriage with Mr. Pura at a double-ring ceremony.

The couple was attended by Johanna Boonsira, maid of honor, who wore a tulle and velvet aqua ballerina gown; and Ray Cox of Chula Vista, best man.

Seating guests were Tony Castano and Steve Arias, the bride's brother.

About 150 friends and relatives gathered at the Arias home following the ceremony, to congratulate the newlyweds.

The bride is a former graduate of Redondo High School and attended El Camino College. Pura is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Pura Sr., of Salinas. Home of the just-weds is in Chula Vista.

CO-WORKERS FETE
MRS. VAN ORSDEAL

Farewells were said Friday evening at a dinner party held at Vivian Laird's in Long Beach honoring Mrs. Helen Van Orsdeal, who recently resigned from her position at the local Bank of America.

Guests were working companions at the Bank and included Mesdames Helen Lackey, Marie Milligan, Charlotte Johns, Rose MacDonald, Lucille Foster, and Misses Ernie Kwoiski and Angie Felix.

Mountains Are Holiday Place for Torrance Folk

Two Torrance families, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bever, 2520 El Dorado Ave., and Mrs. John E. Miller, 1724 Dote Ave., and granddaughter, Marilyn, enjoyed a vacation in mountain climate last week.

The Bevers stayed at Crestline for the week, entertaining Mrs. Miller and Marilyn as guests for four days. Swimming, horseback riding, bowling and evening canasta contests were highlights of the holiday.

HAVE AN ENCHILADA! . . . Mrs. W. A. Wright, left, heaps Mrs. G. H. Blake's plate with some of her homemade enchiladas at Monday night's enchilada lead sponsored by the Perry School Parent-Teacher Association at McMaster Park. At the extreme right, Mrs. Al MacKenzie supplies the PTA president with tossed green salad, which supplemented the Mexican menu. Yellow "butterfly" napkins and purple, yellow and red place mats on a blue table cloth gave the buffet table a festive air, and serapes covering quartet tables lent a South of the Border note to the affair. "We cleared $65 on the project," Mrs. Blake said, "and served about 70 people, men, women and children." Proceeds will be used for the PTA dental program. (Herald photo).

HILLIERS TRAVEL IN COLORADO, TEXAS

Colorado-bound this week are parents and son, Messrs. and Mesdames Harry F. Hillier Sr., 916 Anapola Ave., and Walter Hillier, 1617 Arlington Ave.

The Hilliers will visit relatives at Denver and Canyon City, then drive to San Antonio, Tex., where they will spend some time with Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. Hillier, Walter's brother and the sister of his wife, Pat.

The travelers will return to their Torrance homes in two weeks.

Ohio Visitor Is Guest Of Mr. Mrs. M. Schwab

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Schwab, 1808 Acacia Ave., are welcoming as houseguest this week his aunt, Mrs. L. F. Schwab of Tiffin, Ohio. They plan to visit Bakersfield this week-end, before Mrs. Schwab leaves on Sunday for her Ohio home.

Neil, son of the M. M. Schwabs, is now visiting other Ohio relatives. Accompanying him on the trip is Rodney Barlowcamp of Oxnard, who is awaiting reassignment to a naval post. The duo plan to remain in the east for several weeks.

BRIDGE CLUB MEETS AT G. DEROUIN HOME

Mrs. Gilbert Derouin opened her home, 1625 Beech Ave., Monday evening to members of her bridge club. Two guests of the group, Mesdames Le Roy Snodgrass and Merle Hinshaw also attended.

First prize winner was Mrs. Snodgrass, while Mrs. Ralph McNeil received second prize.

Others enjoying the evening of cards were Mesdames John Oursler, Laura Felker, John Steinbaugh, Edward Rhone, Delbert Thomsen and the hostess.

The PEOPLE'S CHOICE

FOR LOOKS

FOR POWER

FOR PRICE

From coast to coast folks are calling the '52 Ford Victoria America's "best-dressed" car! Its new curved one-piece windshield is "first" in the low-price field. And Ford's choice of new body, upholstery and color combinations is the widest in low-priced car history!

Fordomatic, Overdrive and white sidewall tires optional at extra cost. Equipment, accessories and trim subject to change without notice.

The young heart choose Ford's Crestline Sunliner. With its new 110 high-compression V-8 horsepower, you get the most power ever offered in the low-price field. And take your pick of Fordomatic, Overdrive or Conventional.

Another favorite son is the all-new Ford Ranch Wagon—the lowest-priced full-size station wagon. And like all '52 Fords, it has Automatic Ride Control . . . far easier steering. "Test Drive" your favorite new Ford. You'll agree no car gives you so much style, so much power and so much comfort for the money.
